RIOTING IN ROME.

Soldiers Called Out to Disperse the Mobs.

THE POLICE WERE POWERLESS.

Serious Outbreak of Popular Feeling Against the French—An Attempt Made to Burn the French Embassy—Other Foreign Dispatches.

ROME, Aug. 22.—The troubles growing out of the fighting between French and Italian workmen employed at the salt works in Aigue-Mortes, France, threaten to involve great international consequence. It is not in Rome alone that the popular indignation at what the Italians consider a gross breach of international comity is finding vent in demonstrations that are evidently intended to coerce the government into demanding an apology from France for the attack upon Italians and the payment of an indemnity to compensate the families of those Italians who were killed.

Riots directed against Frenchmen have occurred in many of the province towns, and the situation is considered exceedingly grave.

The most serious outbreak of popular feeling against the French occurred in this city late Sunday night, when a shooting mob attempted to burn the French embassy. Some of the rioters carried cans of petroleum and did not hesitate to openly declare that it was their intention to use it in destroying the embassy.

The authorities, however, had anticipated that an attack might be attempted on the embassy, and a strong force of troops was detailed to guard the building. The rioters, however, attempted to carry out their threats to burn the embassy notwithstanding the presence of the soldiers. They were ordered to disperse but refused to do so, whereupon the soldiers charged upon them.

The mob held their grounds for a time and fought stubbornly. It was not until several charges, upon them were made that they began to retreat, fighting all the time. Forty-five of the rioters were arrested. Many of the mob who were at the front of the fighting were wounded by the sabers that the soldiers used unsparingly.

The rioting in the provincial towns was only quelled by the use of troops, the police being utterly powerless to handle the mob. Further developments are anxiously awaited.

Welsh Miners.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—The threatened invasion of Ebwy Vale, Wales, by an army of 30,000 strikers from Rhondda valley, whose intention was to force the nonunion miners to quit work, has not yet occurred, though the original idea was to begin the march yesterday. The weather was threatening during the day, and toward evening it began to rain in torrents. This had a deterrent effect upon the strikers, but it is more than likely that the measures taken by the police and military to protect the mines and the working miners, had more to do with the actual abandonment of the program than the weather.

Every preparation had been made to receive the strikers and at the slightest attempt at rioting they have found themselves under the guns of the military. Considering all the circumstances, the strikers' leaders thought discretion the better part of valor and the invasion for the present, at least, is off. Many nonunion men are working in the Ebwy Vale district. They are under police and military protection, which will not be withdrawn until all danger of attack is passed.

Elections in France.

PARIS, Aug. 22.—It is now known that rebellots will have to be taken in 155 districts. The results of these rebellots will undoubtedly be favorable to the Republicans, whose gains now reach a total of 68 seats.

The majorities given to the several ministers in their respective districts aggregate nearly 25,000 more than their combined majorities when standing for elections to the chamber of 1889. In the last general election the Boulangists returned 35 members. Sunday they returned only three.

The defeat of the Royalists is causing much significant comment, and it is predicted that it means the ultimate extinction of that party. The departments of Var, Finestres, Lorine in Frieur, hitherto strongholds of the Royalists, have been wrested from them by the Republicans, who are jubilant over the gains they have made.

The classification of Sunday's elections are: Republicans, 312; Socialists, Radicals and Socialists, 31; the "Radicats," 13; Conservatives, 56.

Statue of Lincoln in Scotland.

EDINBURGH, Aug. 22.—The statue of Abraham Lincoln, the "indefatigable president" of the United States, erected as a memorial of the Scotch-American soldiers of the American civil war, was unveiled here yesterday in the presence of the municipal authorities, many distinguished guests, a number of Americans, and a large crowd of residents in Edinburgh including most of the elite of the town, and many from the surrounding country.

Germany Building Warships.

BERLIN, Aug. 22.—Vice Admiral Hollman, secretary of state for naval affairs, is said to have obtained the approval of Dr. Miquel and several other ministers for his plan of spending 40,000,000 marks on new warships in order that Germany may not fall too far behind France and Russia in naval armament.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The veteran senator from Vermont, Mr. Morrill, occupied the attention of the senate with an argument in support of the bill discontinuing the purchase of silver bullion. The speech, which was at the same time witty and serious, was read from printed slips, and occupied a little over an hour in its delivery.

The bill was then laid aside, and the case of the senatorship from Montana was taken up. Two speeches were made against the claim of Mr. Lee Mantle, and against the constitutionality of a state governor to appoint to the senate, save only in the cases of vacancy happening on account of resignation or otherwise during the recess of the legislature. The first was made by Mr. Vance (Dem., N. C.), chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, but who wrote the minority report; and the other by Mr. George (Dem., Miss.), who joined in the minority report. The vote on the resolution to seat Mr. Mantle was postponed until Wednesday at 5 p. m.

The bill to aid the midwinter international exposition at San Francisco was passed.

The senate adjourned at 4:10 p. m.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The committees were appointed by the speaker, and taken as a whole are approved.

The silver debate was dull, and the large audience which had assembled to listen to Mr. Breckinridge of Kentucky was disappointed.

Mr. Powers (Rep., Vt.) spoke for the Wilson bill; Hooker (Dem., Miss.) against it; Cooper (Dem., Ind.) thought it expedient to adopt free coinage at this time, and Mr. Sperry (Dem., Conn.) took the opposite vote. Mr. Cox (Dem., Tenn.) advocated free coinage and Mr. Little (Rep., N. C.) spoke in opposition.

Other speeches were made at the evening session.

Will Pay Out Gold, Too.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Orders have been issued by the treasury department to allow subtreasuries to pay out gold over the counters, the same as other classes of money. The effect of this is to practically place the gold reserve among the available treasury cash assets. As result the gold balance has been somewhat reduced, being slightly below $100,000,000. The net treasury balance is $11,750,000. Receipts continue light and expenditures heavy, so that before the month of August expires the treasury balance and the gold balance will both be probably lower than now.

Fatal Flames.

CHARLESTON, Mo., Aug. 22.—A negro cabin five miles north of here was destroyed by fire. It was occupied by an old negro and several small children. The old woman was a paralytic and was burned to a crisp. An 8-year-old child was so badly burned that she died three hours later, and one child 10 years old has completely disappeared and is believed to have burned to death. The origin of the fire is unknown, but foul play is suspected.

Banks Resuming.

DENVER, Aug. 22.—The People's National and the Union National banks, two more of the suspended banks, have opened their doors for business, having received instructions from Comptroller Eckels to this effect. These, with the National Bank of Commerce, which resumed last week, leaves but three other national banks still closed and these expect to receive orders to resume some time this week.

Greenback Jones in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The father of the greenback, and one of the most consistent and unfaltering advocates, Hon. George A. Jones, has reached Washington from New York. With such a fog of financial talk being stirred up here Mr. Jones could not find it in his heart to remain elsewhere. He talks greenbacks with all his old-time fervor, and as the next thing, is for the cause of silver, heart and soul.

A Fatal Drink.

BARDWELL, Ky., Aug. 22.—R. J. Rutter accidentally shot and killed himself at Laketon, this county. While drinking he was handling a shotgun, which was discharged, the charge taking effect in the lower part of the abdomen, causing death in a few minutes. He leaves a wife and a large family.

Fireman Fatally Injured.

HALIFAX, Aug. 22.—The extensive hardware house of William Starr's Son & Marrow, in lower Water street, was destroyed by fire. Loss, $125,000; insurance, $80,000. Rufus Keating, a fireman, fell from a ladder and was fatally injured.

Clubbed With a Base Ball Bat.

FRANKLIN, Ky., Aug. 22.—Mrs. James Ella met Walton Sadler in the store of James McGlothling and gave him a severe clubbing with a base ball bat. Sadler is a contractor and builder of this city, and Mrs. Ella is the wife of a respectable carpenter. The difficulty grew out of some ugly rumors that Mrs. Ella claims Sadler circulated about her character.

Died of Exposure.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 22.—Mrs. Herman Harrison of Cherry Camp, Harrison county, driven from home by the brutality of her husband, died in an almshouse from the effects of exposure.

Life Prisoner Pardoned.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 22.—Jacob Noel of Elkhart, a life prisoner for murder, has been pardoned.

HOPEFUL OUTLOOK.

Iron Mills Starting Up in the Pittsburg District.

THOUSANDS OF MEN AT WORK

Before the End of the Present Week It Is Expected That Nearly All the Large Plants in the District Will Be Placed in Operation.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 21.—There is plenty of smoke issuing from countless chimneys of many iron mills in the vicinity of Pittsburg. The Sligo works of Phillips, Nimick & Company went on with full operation. Three thousand men are at work at Jones & Laughlin's, and every department is at work except four mills and the sheetiron rolls. The United States Iron and Tin Plate company's works is in partial operation, as is also the Lockhart Iron and Steel company at Chartiers. The Black Diamond steel works started in full, giving employment to 4,000 men.

Outside of the city there was a partial resumption at reduced wages at the National tube works at McKeesport. Three open hearth furnaces were placed in operation at the Carnegie Homestead plant. The Oliver Coke Furnace company fired 100 ovens at Uniontown, employing 300 men. Before the end of the week it is expected that other large plants will be placed in operation.

Factories Preparing to Resume.

ELWOOD, Ind., Aug. 22.—The great MacBeth chimney-house has come to satisfactory terms with its employees, and the factory has again started up. One furnace is in operation, and the other two will resume work about the 1st of October. Under the advice of President Smith of the National Flint Glass Workers' union the employees will draw each Saturday 60 per cent of their wages and allow the remainder to accumulate on the books to their credit until trade grows better and conditions easier.

Similar factories all over the land are starting up under similar conditions, and that fact shows that all sympathy and confidence between employer and employee is not so nearly obliterated as many people would have us believe.

The McCloy chimney-house and Nivison bottleworks will resume business about Oct. 1, while the plateglass works and Roditer window-house are still undecided.

The prospects for Elwood are brighter.

Booming Despite a Panic.

PEIR, Ind., Aug. 22.—The Indiana Manufacturing company of this city made one of the largest shipments from its factory in its entire history. The work consisted of Singer sewing machine material, to the number of 13,000 sets complete. The factory, notwithstanding the hard times, has only laid off few men, and is now working on an average of nearly 400 hands.

Surrounded in Mystery.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Considerable mystery surrounds the tragic death of C. M. Hammel of Plainfield, N. J., who committed suicide in Lincoln park by shooting himself in the head with a revolver, death resulting almost instantly. An examination of his clothing was made and several letters were found which indicated that the unfortunate man had left his home under a cloud and was in momentary fear of being killed by some one whom he had wronged. The authorities at Plainfield have been communicated with concerning his death and the police are awaiting an answer which will probably clear up the mystery surrounding the case.

Suspicion of Murder.

CHARLESTON, Mo., Aug. 22.—A negro cabin five miles north of here was destroyed by fire. It was occupied by an old negro and several small children. The old woman was a paralytic and was burned to a crisp. An 8-year-old child was so badly burned that she died three hours later, and one child 10 years old has completely disappeared, and is believed to have burned to death. The origin of the fire is unknown, but foul play is suspected.

Found Hanging to a Tree.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Aug. 22.—Near Millwood, this county, the dead body of Silas Wilson, a negro ex-convict and horse thief, was found hanging to a tree near the roadside. The rope that strangled him to death encircled his waist and securely tied his hands behind his body. Wilson was last seen near Pleasant Ridge in a cart with two farmers, one of whom was John Buchanan. That the negro was lynched is almost certain.

Five Killed at a Crossing.

OATKA, N. Y., Aug. 22.—A terrible accident occurred at the Lake street crossing of the Lehigh railroad about two miles from this village, at the station known as Oatka, Sunday morning. L. J. Bovee, wife and daughter, Miss Ollie Bovee, Miss Emma Bowder and Miss Nancy Wicks were crossing the track on their way to the Presbyterian church, when they were struck by a fast train going east, and all were killed instantly.

Died in a Wagon.

BARDWELL, Ky., Aug. 22.—A few weeks ago a man named Howington went to Missouri to engage in the watermelon trade. Several members of his family became sick, and he concluded to return to his old home, Sharon, Tenn. While near this place, on his way to Sharon, his 8-year-old child was suddenly taken ill and died in a wagon, which they had used in their wanderings.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Kentucky—South-east winds; slightly warmer; fair weather.

THE WAXAHACHIE, Tex., National Bank, which suspended on August 11th, was Saturday given permission to resume.

THE NEW YORK Clearing-house Loan Committee issued $500,000 more loan certificates yesterday, making the total amount now outstanding $37,880,000.

It is expected that between 4,000 and 5,000 delegates will attend the Catholic Congress, to be held in Chicago next month. Cardinal Gibbons will preside.

THE People's party of New York held a convention Saturday and adopted as a platform the principles of the Omaha platform. A State ticket was nominated.

The developments in the bad failure of the Indianapolis National Bank continue to be of a sensational character. Though the bank could not legally lend more than $30,000 to any single borrower, the Indianapolis Cabinet Company, controlled by the Coffins, had succeeded in securing a loan of $40,000, and the assets of the cabinet company have disappeared in a mysterious manner.

BRECKINRIDGE-POLLARD.

A Maysville Man Has Something to Say in Reference to the Case.

Editor of the Bulletin: In a recent issue of your paper there appeared, in defense of Kentucky's gifted miscreant, an article bearing evidence of scholarly attainments and historical research, but which admitted the guilt of him whom it would defend, by seeking to justify his conduct by the crimes of others. We believe in a fair, impartial hearing to all, however guilty, and in a suspension of judgment until all the facts are known. One fact in this case, however, is admitted. A defenseless woman has been robbed of the most priceless attribute to which woman-kind lays claim—her virtue; thus shorn of all that is given to life a charm or to death its hope: abandoned and friendless? Already has censorious human kind, unmindful of the meek and lowly Nazarene's injunction, cast their stones of reproach at this unfortunate woman; and as one whose presence is pollution and whose touch is leperous she must look, for even mercy, only to that "higher court," where human decrees are as naught. The next question to be considered is, who is responsible for this woman's downfall. Has a statesman, a supposed guardian of his country's peace and happiness, the right to use his bewitching manner and talents as Faust used the fabled jewels with innocent, unsuspecting Marguerite? If so, shame to the man who would avert this merited stroke from the hand of "virtuous indignation." As to the guilt or innocence of this gifted citizen in the seduction of this unfortunate woman, let the facts determine as they are disclosed. But not even the warmest friends, or even he himself, deny an intimacy with this woman, disgraceful alike to himself and his constituents, and that, too, at a time when in so doing he must trample under foot vows made to another woman, which should have been as sacred as life itself. Yes, Mr. Breckinridge has been guilty of wrong; where he should have protected he has betrayed; where he should have shielded he has deceived; and if he wrought not the ruin of this unfortunate woman—and it looks like he did—he has assisted in dragging lower into the walks of pollution. True, by her own folly, she has been made to suffer. By his duplicity her wretchedness has been intensified, and he, too, must in turn suffer, for he has violated the law which administers its own punishment.

"The mills of God grind slowly;
But they grind exceedingly small;
Though in patience stands he waiting,
With exactness grinds he all."

BLUE RIBBON FAIR.

The Opening Day of the Maysville Fair—To-Day's Programme. Some Displays, Etc.

As we predicted, everything points to our Blue Ribbon Fair being far ahead of all former ones. There are double the strangers in town that there ever was before, on the opening day. Every stall on the grounds are full. The floral hall will be lovelier if possible than ever before.

In looking through today, we noticed McCree & Thompson's display. They have the handsomest plow we ever saw, the beam is inlaid in pearls. They also have some magnificent buggies. But we learn they will not have it all their own way.

Let everybody give the fair a good send-off. Admission to-day but 25 cents.

MASON County is being well represented by visitors to the World's Fair. From every precinct in the county our citizens have gone, and from the number already gone, now going and preparing to go it is safe to say the county will contribute its share of the visitors. Before the fair opened it was calculated that one in every ten of the population of the United States would attend the fair. On this basis Mason County will send her full ratio.

A Chance Not Often Offered.

Should any of our readers contemplate placing orders for anything in the line of cemetery work, within the next sixty days, will best serve their own interests, by calling at the works of M. R. Gilmore No. 108 to 112 West Second street. He has in his show-room the best assorted and largest stock of granite and marble monuments, tablets, headstones, urns, posts, etc., that has ever been offered for sale in Maysville at any one time. This work then must be sold, in order to make room for fall shipment, and at prices to suit the times. Our goods bear the severest comparison with those named by any other person for equally desirable work. Mr. Gilmore invites those needing any thing in his line to call and examine the work in his show-room and learn prices.

GROVER, JR.

Ex-Governor Lee Wired the President His Congratulations When the False Report Was Received.

Ex-Governor Fitzhugh Lee has been made the victim of a very peculiar joke, and the politicians have the laugh on him. While attending the State Democratic Convention at Richmond, Va., Thursday he was informed that President Cleveland had become the father of a bouncing boy. The ex-Governor, amid vociferous applause, announced the supposed arrival of the little Grover to the great gathering, and proposed the sending of a congratulatory telegram to the happy sire. This was done, the message being signed by Lee himself; but to-day the ex-Governor learned with horror and amazement that the "Presidential possibility" was the fiction of some mendacious fraud, as Mrs. Cleveland was out sailing the morning the cherub was said to have been ushered into existence.

The ex-Governor to-day wired President Cleveland explaining that the report was the outcome of a special telegram announcing the birth to Mrs. Cleveland of a fine son. General Lee is profoundly humiliated over the incident, and says he will write a full explanation to the President, who considers Lee a warm personal friend. There was no discount on the enthusiasm the news caused when given by the popular ex-Governor to the convention, and the President would feel grateful if he received the congratulations with the faith and sincerity with which they were tendered.

Satolli's visit is the dedication of the new Italian church.

Soon she was taken with a severe pain in her arm, and before reaching home her arm was greatly swollen and she was in a faint, dying from the effects of the sting to-day.

BANK WRECKERS ARRESTED.
Indiana Men Charged With Embezzlement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 22.—At 6 o'clock last night Deputy United States Marshal Foley started out with a drag net after the wreckers of the Indianapolis National bank, and by 7 o'clock he had landed Theodore P. Haughey, president of the bank; Schuyler C. Haughey, his son, president of the Indianapolis glue works and Indianapolis curled hair works, to which two concerns and their employees and officers the bank advanced $462,000; Francis B. Coffin, president of the Indianapolis cabinet works, to which concern the bank advanced $357,000; Percival B. Coffin, secretary, and Albert S. Reed, treasurer, of the cabinet works.

Theodore P. Haughey is charged with embezzlement and knowingly misappropriating funds of the bank in advancing money upon worthless paper. All the others are charged with embezzlement and aiding and abetting in the misappropriation of funds. They were taken at once before the United States commissioner, gave bond and had their hearing set for Aug. 28. The bond of each was fixed at $5,000.

Receiver Hawkins declared that the prosecutions would be pushed to the utmost. It is understood that the comptroller proposes to gather in everybody it is possible to get at, and this will take in also the two directors who, with Haughey and Cashier Reedford, signed the statement of July 12. One of these is Charles Meyer, a wholesale cigar dealer, and the other is R. B. F. Peirce, ex-congressman and at present managing trustee of the Indianapolis, Decatur and Western railroad.

Fatal Quarrel.

BASCOM, O., Aug. 22.—John and Lloyd Flack went to the house of Perry Osterholt and beat him into insensibility with a picket torn from a fence. The victim's father was knocked down and brutally kicked, and Fred Osterholt, who came to assist his father and brother, was struck in the temple and his skull fractured. Lewis Flack, father of James and Lloyd, and their cousin, Charles Flack, a justice of the peace, also became engaged in the fight. Three hundred villagers gathered about the house and the Flacks would have been lynched had they not made their escape. Perry Osterholt died of his injuries.

Confessed to Murder.

LIMA, O., Aug. 22.—The murderer of the little babe found on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago tracks Wednesday has confessed, and is now in the Allen county jail. The charge is murder in the first degree. The prisoner is Clara Weicker, 23, the daughter of well-to-do parents of Shreve. She says that Fred Hull, a telegraph operator of Cuyahoga Falls, was the father. She says that she disrobed the babe, wrapped a shawl about it, and dropped it from the train, in order to conceal her shame. The babe was born at Fort Wayne. She firmly states that Hull advised her to make way with the child.

Fatally Injured by His Mother.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Aug. 22.—Louis Richardson and wife had a quarrel over some money which he accused her of taking from his pants. In the fight she picked up an ax and started to kill him. Their 13-year-old boy ran between them at the moment and received the blow square in the head, fracturing the skull and injuring him fatally.

Foul Play or Suicide.

RICHMOND, Ind., Aug. 22.—William Douglass, an old farmer living near the state line east of this city, is reported mysteriously missing. He left home Saturday evening to drive some cattle from a neighboring field, since which time he has not been seen. It is supposed that he has met with foul play or else committed suicide.

One Fatal Shot.

CARLISLE, Ky., Aug. 22.—Near Deerfield Campground, James Payne emptied his revolver at Mort Ferguson. Only one bullet took effect, but it will prove fatal, as it struck near the spinal column and ranged up. Ferguson cut Payne twice in the breast with a large dirk making a very dangerous wound.

No Truth in It.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 22.—There is no truth in the story of the killing of four boomers by soldiers on the Cherokee strip. Messages from all points on the strip show that there has been no collision of any kind between the soldiers and boomers.

When the President is Expected Back.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—President and Mrs. Cleveland will, it is understood, return to the White House the last day of this month. The work that has been in progress about the mansion for some weeks past has been nearly completed.

Went With His Wife.

NEWPORT, Ark., Aug. 22.—Lee Bentley, a young farmer, seeing that his wife was about to die, swallowed laudanum with fatal effects. His wife breathed her last soon after he had expired. They are to be buried together.

Wife of a Farmer.

HEADQUARTERS, Ky., Aug. 22.—During a picnic fight at Dogwalk, this county, Tom Sims was dangerously cut across the abdomen and throat, and Ben Conway was stabbed several times in the side and back. Charles Feeback was perhaps fatally injured by being struck on the head with a ston.

Town Destroyed by Fire.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Aug. 22.—A fire broke out in Bird's Eye, in the south-east part of this county, and totally destroyed three-fourths of the town, including the entire business portion of it. Kerner Brothers, Hubbard Brothers and Frank Zimmer, leading merchants, are the principal losers.

His Third Victim.

DANVILLE, Ky., Aug. 22.—Phil Devers shot and killed Bruce Purdon, at a neighborhood gathering on the edge of Casey county. Both are well-to-do farmers. The trouble grew out of a misunderstanding about a school. This is said to be Devers' third man.
